Object Lesson: The importance of helping and supporting family for friends. Ask child to lift chair by one of its legs, using only one hand. Then have him ask three friends to help, each lifting different leg of chair. When all work together, chair is easy to lift.

Families are like jelly beans
Each one uniquely colored,
Some are red, some pink, some green
And some are even spotted!
Each one's flavor is all its own
Some tart, some sweet, some sweeter,
Some get scooped up right away
And some get saved for later.
But although each one's different
And some favored over others,
Put 'em all in a basket and
They all go great together!
