

Travis Repents

1. Travis was having fun playing with Matt's toys. He wished that they were his own.
2. I'll borrow them, he thought, putting several toys into his pocket without asking Matt.
3. When Travis played with the toys in his bedroom at home, it wasn't much fun.
4. His mother asked him why he was unhappy.
5. Travis told his mother that he had borrowed Matt's toys without asking and that now he felt awful about it.
6. "It is wrong to take something that belongs to someone else," said Travis's mother. "What will make it right?"
7. "I'll feel better if Matt has his toys back," said Travis. "Will you take them to him for me?"
8. "No, I can't repent for you," Mother replied. "You are sorry, and you need to take the toys back yourself."
9. "I'm afraid to tell Matt the truth. Maybe he'll be mad at me."
10. "Maybe he will," said Mother, "but taking the toys back and telling Matt that you are sorry will take away the bad feeling that you have for your mistake."
11. "Matt, here are your toys. I'm sorry that I took them without asking," said Travis. "I won't do it again."
12. "I'm glad that you brought them back," said Matt. "You really are a good friend."
13. "I'm glad that I told the truth and made things right," Travis said with a smile.
